Watching: money with a stated thesis and no sector purchase in the window

Firm	What they have said or funded	Source
Tidemark Capital	Holds ServiceTitan as its model vertical SaaS case: 'win the category, expand offerings, and extend through the value chain'; calls ServiceTitan 'the premier SaaS operating system for contractors.' No new FSM acquisition or investment in the window found.	tidemarkcap.com
Andreessen Horowitz and Sequoia Capital	Backed Probook's $40 million (Series A $34M led by a16z; Seed $6M led by Sequoia) AI operating system for home services, June 2026. a16z's David Haber: 'Dispatch is the nerve center of every home service business'; Sequoia's Konstantine Buhler: 'Most founders building for the trades have never worked in them.' Venture entry, not an acquisition.	pmmag.com
Serent Capital	States it 'has a strong track record of investing in field services technology companies'; in the window it was a seller (Davisware to ECI, April 2025) and merged portfolio company LMN into SingleOps (November 2024) rather than buying a new FSM platform.	silicon.co.uk

Our read

- Vertical-software consolidators did the most FSM buying in 2025-2026, all at undisclosed terms and in niche or regional products: Valsoft/Manos (ProgressionLIVE Aug 2025, Dispatch Jul 2026), Constellation's CORA Group (Site Service Software, Dec 2025) and JDM Technology Group (Successware from Authority Brands, Mar 2025).
- ServiceTitan, public since late 2024, has shifted from buying category platforms (FieldRoutes, Aspire, 2021-22) to tuck-ins around sales enablement and HVAC design (Convex, Apr 2024; Conduit Tech, Sept 2025) and says only that it 'may continue to consider' acquisitions.
- Disclosed pricing is rare: the only public price points in the window are Battery Ventures' take-private of TrueContext at C$1.07 per share (about C$150 million equity value, May 2024) and Nemetschek's GoCanvas purchase at 'around 11.5x' 2023 ARR of USD 67 million (June 2024).
- Sponsor-backed platforms are buying adjacencies rather than competitors: Skimmer (Mainsail) into pool construction (Aug 2026), XOi (KKR) into HVAC equipment data (Feb 2025), SingleOps (FTV, Five Elms) merging with Serent's LMN to cover the green industry (Nov 2024).
- What changed since 2024: top-tier venture capital is now funding AI-native dispatch rather than buying incumbents (Probook, $40M from a16z and Sequoia, June 2026), while the 2020-2022 roll-up buyers (EverCommerce, Xplor, WorkWave, GPS Insight, Fullsteam) show no FSM acquisitions in this window in the sources searched (an unverified negative).

Not in the window, or not verified

- Simpro Group (Brisbane, Australia; K1-backed) acquired BigChange (UK) in October 2024 (Business Wire 20241025262794); excluded under the rule that UK/Australian acquirers count only for North American targets.
- ServiceCore (Mainsail) acquired Docket on May 1, 2023 and BuildOps acquired PWSWARE in July 2023: both before the window.
- Xplor (Enterprise Selling Solutions, Aug 2022), WorkWave (Real Green, Slingshot, TEAM, 2021), EverCommerce (Briostack, Jan 2021), GPS Insight (FieldAware, ServiceBridge, 2021) and Fullsteam (CLIP, 2020; Vonigo, 2022): all pre-window; no in-window FSM acquisition found for any of them.
- Jobber, Housecall Pro, Workiz, FieldPulse, ServiceTrade: no acquisitions found in the window (searches only; not a verified negative).
- ServiceTitan's purchase consideration for Convex and Conduit Tech: SEC filings could only be read in part; figures not attributed.

Method. Public announcements only (press releases, the acquirer's own newsroom, SEC filings, trade press), each opened on the day. Prices and multiples appear only where the source states them. The map is a reading of the record, not advice, and a buyer on it has not said it will buy your company. Capital Row, team@thecapitalrow.com.
